- Farewell to AFT 1521A LABOR WARRIOR – DIANE HAYES 8/9/1945 – 12/23/2017

Diane Hayes was an active AFT College Staff Guild member since 1983. She became the Chapter Chair at LA City College in the early 90's and served several 4-year terms. Diane became the negotiating team member for City College in 1992 and served on 4 negotiating contracts for the Staff Guild.

Her major contributions in negotiations were for health and safety, including ergonomic conditions, health and welfare and retirement. Diane served on the Staff Guild Budget Committee and was a delegate to the California Federation of Teachers and the American Federation of Teachers conventions for over a decade. She was a delegate to the Los Angeles County Federation of Labor and served on various committees. Diane Hayes was a union activist through and through and was loyal to her bargaining members and to the union. Her legacy to the union movement is to be strong and fight for what you believe in. She will be missed!
